READING THE OLD TESTAMENT IN A YEAR

CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST

160 St. Mary's Road

In about ten to fifteen minutes a day, you can read through the Old Testament in a year. On average, this works out to about three to four pages a day, slightly more for some sections of poetry which have fewer words per page.

The readings are arranged in approximate chronological order to help you follow the sequence of events in the Old Testament and how the Prophets and Psalms appear in historical books.

The months are numbered rather than named so that you can start using this calendar any time during the year. If you miss a day, don't worry about it, just keep going when you have time. Even if it takes you more than twelve months, it will be worth it. You can keep track of where you are by checking the boxes for the readings as you finish them.

Reading the Bible keeps us in touch with God, helps us to know Him better, enriches our lives and guides in how to follow His teachings:

Jesus therefore was saying to those Jews who had believed Him,
"If you abide in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

(John 8:31-32)

All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness.

(2 Timothy 3:16)

May God bless you and guide you as you read His Word.
